AmeriCorps – Summary of Programs

	AmeriCorps Program (established 1993)	AmeriCorps Education Awards Program (established 1997)	AmeriCorps*VISTA Program (Volunteers in Service to America) (established 1964)
GOALS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To engage citizens of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities in community service;• Getting Things Done – direct service and volunteer generation, priority community needs;• Strengthening Communities –community involvement, collaboration, volunteer participation, and diversity; and,• AmeriCorps Member Development – ethic of service, training, supervision, and support.	Increase self-sufficiency of residents of low-income communities by creating programs that can continue after the VISTA completes the term of service. Capacity building projects that expand services to reach more people.
FOCUS	Direct service activities include: tutoring, mentoring, home visiting, environmental stewardship activities, and volunteer generation and support. Applicants must clearly demonstrate the added value AmeriCorps resources bring to the program design. Clerical work and research may not be performed unless they are in support of a direct service. No more than 20 percent of service time can be dedicated to education, training, or other approved non-direct service activities.		Encourage permanent, long-term solutions to problems confronting low-income communities; generate the commitment of private sector resources; encourage volunteer service; and, strengthen the capacities of local agencies.
ELIGIBLE GRANTEES	Public-private partnerships with a minimum of three members.		Public and private not-for-profit organizations.
PROGRAM SIZE	Partnerships may request no less than 20 AmeriCorps FTE members; members must serve in teams of two or more. Please note that program size requirements for both AmeriCorps and VISTA are guidelines only – applicants may request fewer members by providing adequate justification in their applications.		Prefer to allocate no less than 15 members per project, but will allocate as few as 5 members to a project. Members work individually and in small teams.

FUNDING
GRANTS	Three-year grants with renewal based on progress toward meeting objectives and available funding. Timing for Request for Applications vary each year.
